The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about February 27, 2013, December 21, 2012 and November 14, 2012, you or your organization committed violations of the following sections of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 9:

2.40(b)(2) Attending Veterinarian and Adequate Veterinary Care....repeated failure to establish and maintain programs of veterinarian care that use appropriate methods to prevent, control, diagnose, and treat diseases and injuries

2.75(b)(1) Records: Dealers and Exhibitors....repeated failure to make, keep and maintain accurate records of animal disposition

3.27(b) Facilities, Outdoor....guinea pigs are housed in outdoor facilities without obtaining prior approval from the Deputy Administrator

3.33(b) Classification and Separation....repeated failure to appropriately house guinea pigs. Guinea pigs shall not be housed in the same primary enclosure with hamsters or with any other species of animals

3.58 Classification and Separation....repeated failure to house animals in compatible groups.

3.125(a) Facilities General....repeated failure to construct and maintain facilities in such a manner as to protect animals from injury and to contain the animals

3.131(a) Sanitation....DIRECT....failure to remove excreta from primary enclosures as often as necessary to contamination of the animals contained therein and to minimize disease hazards and to reduce odors

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
